
Every integer square side L ≥ 2. Points are separate certificates; their trend is not a physical-gap estimate.

Six-decimal point labels are rounded downward. Exact certificate values are retained in the data.