
Dots are separate certificates. Bars certify every parameter in the shown interval. Plot scales are separate.
No monotonic physical-gap trend, phase boundary, or interpolation between isolated dots is inferred.